A BRIEF HISTORY OF

~~THE~~

WINSLOW

An Irishman, a Scotsman and Mark walk into a bar. Though this sounds like the beginning of a joke, it's actually the triad that brings you the East Village/ Gramercy area's

THE WINSLOW.

Lovers of drinking and eating (specifically: gin and scotch eggs), the boys braced the perils of 14th Street, charged their way through ambulance disco parties and hordes waiting on line for free pancakes, and set up an oasis where people can come have some high-end pub fare (created by our amazing Executive Chef Nathan Pauley); cocktails so tastey you'll want to sew them to your tongue (designed by GM/Beverage Director Cait Moorhead); and a Gin & Tonic or twelve.

Voted best staff five years in a row by everyone who works here, ask us about our specialty drinks and our seasonal selections (unless we're busy, then please just get one of our many delicious beers). We live to (over) serve you.

If you read this backstory in its entirety, ask your friendly server or bartender for a shiny gold star. Thank you for spending your money at THE WINSLOW, when you didn't have to spend it at all. We really appreciate it.

CHEERS,

The very attractive Winslow staff

"Learn to be stingy very soon and drink alone in the dark" -Dawn Powell

"Sometimes when I reflect back on all the beer I drank I feel ashamed. Then I look into the glass and think about the workers in the brewery and all of their hopes and dreams. If I didn't drink this beer, they might be out of work and their dreams would be shattered. Then I say to myself, 'It is better that I drink this beer and let their dreams come true than be selfish and worry about my liver.'" –Jack Handy
